Amend the Law relating to the Superannuation of Officers and Servants of Pauper Lunatic Asylums in Ireland. A.D. 1888.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Gracious Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Pauper Lunatic Asylums, Ireland, Superannuation Act, 1888. Short title.

2. This Act shall extend to Ireland only.

Extent.

3.—(1.) In case any officer or servant of any asylum for the lunatic poor in Ireland whose whole time, save in the case of physicians, has been devoted to the service of such asylum, become from confirmed sickness, age, or infirmity incapable of executing the office in person, or has been an officer or servant in the asylum for not less than fifteen years and be not less than fifty years of age, it shall be lawful for the Board of Governors of such asylum, if in their discretion they think fit so to do, but not otherwise, with the approval of the inspectors of lunatics or one of them, to grant to such officer or servant (whether incapable from sickness age or infirmity, or having been an officer or servant in the asylum for not less than fifteen years, and being not less than fifty years of age) such annuity in the way of superannuation as they think proportionate to the merits and time of service of such officer or servant, and every such annuity shall be payable out of the funds lawfully applicable to the maintenance of such asylum: Provided always, that the annual amount paid in the way of superannuation to any retired officer or servant of any such asylum shall not exceed the sum of two thirds of the annual salary and two thirds of the annual value of the lodgings, rations, and other allowances payable to or enjoyed by the person superannuated at

[Bill 135.]

Provision for superannuation.

A.D. 1888. the time of his or her retirement; and that no such superannuation shall be granted unless notice of the meeting of the Board of Governors at which the same shall be granted, and of the intention to determine thereat the question of such superannuation shall have been given to each member of such Board of Governors personally, or left at his place of abode, or posted at the post office nearest such asylum, in a letter directed to him, at least fourteen days before the time appointed for such meeting, nor unless three governors concur in and sign the order granting such superannuation. 5 10

(2.) Where the offices of superintendent and matron of any such asylum are held by man and wife, and an order is made granting an annuity in the way of superannuation to the superintendent, the provisions of this Act as to the grant of an annuity in the way of superannuation shall apply to such matron, notwithstanding she 15 has not attained the age of fifty years, provided such matron has been an officer of such asylum for not less than twenty years.
